

Republican Assembly Hits Government News Service, Names Two for Congress

Members of the Lemon Grove California Assembly have unanimously passed a resolution opposing the proposed establishment of a unified governmental communications media to be called the National Communications system, calling it a "grave threat to our free and uncontrolled press."

The resolution also cited an act of such a system would be an unconstitutional theft of taxpayers' money and would, if allowed to go unchecked, end in the establishment of an American "Tass" to replace our free press.

The resolution also cited an August 24th memorandum by President Kennedy in which he directed the heads of executive departments and agencies to extend the Government Market News Service, which began on August 1 in competition with free enterprise services already in operation, to their own respective fields. Such a proposal strikes at the heart of the American people's right to know what's going on in their government, since unbiased news would be replaced by a propaganda machine justifying its own actions, the resolution said.

Dr. Frank Phillips of L.G. president of the group, also announced plans for a joint meeting of all CRA Units in the 37th Congressional District to be held Nov. 21st to interview potential candidates for Congress in 1964. "We're out to retire Van Deerlin," he said, "and we're starting now to find the best man to take his place."

Meanwhile, Captain William C. Ball of Bonita, 37th Congressional District Director of the California Republican Assembly, said the five CRA units in the 37th Congressional District will meet November 21 to interview prospective candidates for next year's election. Incumbent congressman from the 37th is Lionel Van Deerlin, a first term Democrat who, in 1962, won a narrow victory over Republican Dick Wilson.

To date, only two prospective candidates have announced that they will attend the meeting. They are Paul Sutherland, San Diego parking lot operator, and William C. Faulstich, La Mesa attorney.

Purpose of the meeting, Ball said, is to enable Republican voters to get acquainted with their prospective candidates, for office.

The five participating CRA units will be the Sweetwater Republican Assembly, the North Park Republican Assembly, Lemon Grove Republican Assembly, Highland Terrace Republican Assembly, and the National City Republican Assembly.

The meeting will be held in the Ella B. Allen School in Bonita, and will commence at 8 p.m.

William K. Shearer, publisher of the California Statesman and administrative assistant to Assemblyman E. Richard Barnes, will serve as moderator at the meeting.

100 Beds To Be Added At Grossmont Hospital

Expansion of Grossmont Hospital facilities to add 75 to 100 beds to its present 234-bed capacity was approved last week by directors of the Grossmont Hospital District.

Director heard a representative of Medical Planning Associates describe the first phase of the three-phase report involving needs for the hospital's immediate future. The report showed the expansion to be feasible.

The planning firm's suggested expansion program will be started within the next six months, Leverett Bristol, Grossmont Hospital administrator said.

In addition to the extra beds, additional patient facilities are needed in medical, surgical and orthopedic departments, although the precise needs in each section were not outlined in the preliminary study, Bristol said.

The planning association was authorized to proceed with a second, more detailed study. A six week's engineer's study on utilities, service supply and dietary facilities will be made before the bed increase approval, he said.

The hospital is licensed by the state for 234 patients, and has a nominal capacity of 217.

The hospital opened with 110-bed capacity establishment in 1955, and added a 124-bed wing in 1960, Bristol said another wing will probably be built to accommodate the additional facilities.

"However, we're approaching this in a different manner," he said. "We are attempting to find out our needs and wants and when we determine that we will worry about the shape of the building, rather than build a box and then worry about trying to fill it."

Financing will be discussed later by the planners and board. Bristol said he saw nothing in the immediate future that would suggest a branch hospital being built in the Spring Valley Lemon Grove area.

He said the new concept of hospitals is the medical center type with the district residents being within 30 minutes range rather than the satellite type.

Thieves broke into Skyline Market at 1490 Skyline dr., L.G., last Saturday night. The thieves broke a window and entered a workshop at the rear of the store and then broke through the wall with tools found in the workshop.

After gaining entrance, the store office was ransacked, cash registers were attacked, and a stamp machine was pulled off its mount and thrown on the floor.

While exiting through a basement door, the burglars set off an alarm that summoned deputies. Cigarettes were the only items noted to be missing.

Miguel Coeds Await Grid Coronation

As the peak of the gridiron season nears for Mount Miguel and Helix high schools, five senior co-eds pensively await the moment when one of them will be crowned Matador homecoming queen.

Either Sheila Greene, Michele Shimek, Doreen LeBeau, Tam Mansfield, or Kathy Herbener will be crowned homecoming queen in half-time ceremonies during tomorrow night's traditional rivalry between the Highlanders and the Matadors.

Patti Long, last year's queen, escorted by Bud Carey, will crown the girl who was chosen at a school election Wednesday.

Sheila, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Greene of 8118 Blossom ln., Spring Valley. She is ASB commissioner of publicity and will be escorted by Richie Sabo.

ASB secretary, a cadence corps lieutenant, and a member of the Seventeen magazine advertising staff, Michele, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Shimek of 3349 Par dr., La Mesa. She will be escorted by John Hawkins.

Doreen, 17, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Le Beau of 1103 Elkton, Spring Valley, has been the secretary of her class during her junior and senior years. She plans to attend Wheaton College and will be escorted Friday night by Eddie Kellogg.

Tam, class treasurer two years, a band member three years, an ASB commissioner and cadence corps member, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Mansfield, 3243 Par dr., La Mesa. She will be escorted by Mike McCrae.

Head varsity cheerleader, Kathy Herbener is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Meyers of 1617 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove. Kathy placed thirteenth in statewide girls' extemporaneous speaking last year and is a member of the National Forensic League and Thespians. She has acted in for school plays and plans to be a clinical psychologist. Mike Meyers will escort Kathy.

Valley Youth To Be Sentenced For Vandalism

A Spring Valley junior college student pleaded guilty of having broken trees and shrubs in the La Mesa area.

The youth, Roger Millhouse, 20, of 929 Lemon st., Spring Valley, pleaded guilty in El Cajon Municipal Court Thursday and will be sentenced December 5.

Fred Niman, an 18-year-old Helix high school youth who lives on 70th st., S.D., also pleaded guilty of the same charge. Another Helix student, 16 years old, was referred to juvenile authorities.

All three were arrested Wednesday after investigation of a series of acts of vandalism on homes and gardens last weekend.

Miguel to Meet Helix In Annual Rivalry

By Dave Lewis

A seven-year grid rivalry will be renewed tomorrow night at Mount Miguel high school when the Matadors meet the Helix Highlanders.

Although Helix boasts a perfect record in league play, Miguel, downed only by the El Capitan Vaqueros, will undoubtedly offer the Highlanders the stiffest competition they have faced this season.

Traditionally, the encounter with Helix is the game of the year at Miguel. This year it also will be the Matador's homecoming and will be viewed by additional hundreds of alumni who have returned for the celebration.

An added incentive for stopping the Highlanders is the league title. If Miguel wins, a three-way tie for first place in the Grossmont loop will result. An anticipated 5,000 people will be on hand at the Miguel stadium as the whistle blows and the fight for the Claymore is on.

Facing El Cajon in her homecoming game last week, Miguel emerged victorious with a close 14-13 score.

After a scoreless first quarter a brilliant 30 yard run up the middle of the El Cajon defense by Al Cazimero put the Matadors out in front. Gary Sandor ran the conversion, and with 9:31 to go in the half, Miguel led, 7-0.

Later in the quarter a 39 yard run by Jim Nicodemus placed the Matadors in scoring position. Following unsuccessful sprints by Jimbo Stevens and Gary Sandor, Nicodemus galloped 8 yards around the right end for a Matador TD. Booting the extra point was Richard Hansen.

With 22 seconds to go in the half, Tom DeLonge tallied for the Braves with a three-yard run. DeLonge also kicking the point after touchdown, the Braves trailed 14-7 at the half.

Although Steve Frank intercepted an El Cajon pass and Miguel recovered a fumble by the Braves, neither team scored in the third.

Fourth quarter action saw a reverse of this as El Cajon was on the receiving end of a pass from Nicodemus and a fumble by Keith Padgett. Climaxing a long drive, with 1:22 to go the Braves Rick Blanchard plunged into the end zone, bring El Cajon within one point of Miguel.

In danger of being scalped, the Matadors blocked the Brave's attempted conversion which would have tied the game.

Ask a Fuzzy Question -- Get a Fuzzy Answer

When the Lemon Grove school board got a request for the use of the San Miguel school auditorium, the church-school separation philosophy came into sharp focus.

Well, it was in focus until the State's lawyers got into the act.

The Education Code allows for school auditoriums to be used by church groups on a "temporary" basis.

Just how long is "temporary" as used in Section 16551 of the Education Code, the board had to know.

The board instructed Superintendent Byron Netzley to communicate that question to Assemblyman Dick Donovan, himself a lawyer.

It must have been with a chuckle that Donovan sent a copy of the reply he got from the Office of the Legislative Counsel at Sacramento.

If you think the board had a fuzzy idea before asking for help, see what they had to work with after getting "expert" advice on the meaning of the word "temporary."

"Section 16551 of the Education Code provides in part that a school district may grant the use of school buildings or grounds to a church or religious organization for the conduct of religious services for temporary periods where such church or religious organization has no suitable meeting place for the conduct of such services," Sacramento counsel pointed out.

"Certain principles of statutory construction serve as a guide in interpreting statutes. Except where otherwise indicated non-technical words are given their ordinary meaning."

Local Dump Closes in '65

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Sweetwater dump serving Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and southern La Mesa, will be closed in February of 1965.

This was disclosed this week in a new Preliminary Refuse Disposal Plan for the county proposed to the Board of Supervisors.

Cyrus Weiler, director of public works, placed the comprehensive plan before the supervisors for study.

The 13½-acre site of Paradise Valley rd., is being leased from the San Diego Unified School District, which plans to build a junior high school there in the future.

After 1965, a refuse dump at Jamacha Junction will be used to replace the Sweetwater site, according to the study. A 42-acre site is being acquired at that location under condemnation proceedings now underway in San Diego Superior Court.

The only burning dump in the area is at Jamul which is expected to be abandoned in 1965.

Weiler's study recommends the abandonment of all leased operations and the acquisition of all refuse sites for better long-range planning. He said the present practice of providing free disposal service had been good, resulting in few cases of indiscriminate dumping by any individuals hauling their own refuse.

He recommended that the biggest effort by the county be in the coastal area where the bulk of the population is concentrated.

The only refuse dump in the county where industrial wastes are accepted is at the Otay site, where tree stumps and large sections of tree trunks are also accepted, all for a low fee.

Donovan Says Government To Grow in State

A vivid picture of the Brown administration's pressure on the 1963 Legislature was described Friday for the Lemon Grove Men's Club by Assemblyman Dick Donovan.

Donovan described the events leading up to the lock-in by Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, but explained that the compromise was a victory for those who opposed the Administration's high handed tactics.

"Brown Increased Taxes" "We cut the budget and got a school aid bill passed," Donovan said. "We successfully fought off pay-as-you-go state income tax but Gov. Brown forced through higher taxes on banks and insurance firms after promising there would be no added taxes this year. He attempted to get around his promise by calling these increased taxes "tax reforms."

Looking at the coming session, Donovan said there is going to be a trend to reserve taxes to different levels of government leaving property taxes to local government.

Sees Centralization He sees a continued delegation of authority to state commissions, departments, authorities and boards but with a greater centralization of government toward Sacramento. All of this means bigger government, he explained.

There will be more state taxes for schools and more licensing of business and professions, he added.

The Men's club meets regularly at Michael's on Friday at noon. Men of the community may attend without personal invitation.

Minimums Listed For Incorporation Petition Signers

David W. Bird, supervisor of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley district, released figures this week on land value and number of owners in two areas proposed for incorporation in east county.

The material was obtained from the County Assessor's office as a guide for petition circulators, according to Frank Armstrong, proponent for the Lemon Grove incorporation movement.

In Lemon Grove, according to Bird's figures, taxable land value is $9,235,950 of which the petitioners must sign up a minimum of 25 per cent of $2,308,988.

Owners total 10,286 and 2,572 on 25 per cent, must sign.

In Spring Valley taxable land value is $8,641,720 and $2,160,430 must be represented by the petition signers. 2,759 property owners representing 25 per cent of the area's 11,034 owners must sign the petitions, Armstrong said.

The incorporation proposals are separate and each community must acquire signatures of people representing 25 per cent of the land owners whose land is valued at 25 per cent of the total assessed valuation of each community.

Armstrong said there was a need for petition circulators and those desiring to assist should contact him at HO5-4344 or Mrs. Esther Alexander at HO6-4548.

Foothills Delegates Sent to Confab on Family Problems

Two members are representing the Foothills Family Service Association this week at the Biennial Meeting of the Family Service Association in San Francisco. Those chosen to attend by the Executive Board are staff member Margaret Gregory and lay member Mrs. Trudi Isaacson.

"Strength to Families Under Stress" is to be the theme of the conference. Clark W. Blackburn, general director, Family Service Association of America, has called the conference "uniquely significant because of today's crucial problems in our fast-growing Western Region." Blackburn cited as among the outstanding problems today: family breakdown, pressures caused by rapid population growth, uncertainty in health and welfare organizational patterns, recognition of the basic relationship between family strength and community strength.

This is the first time that the local association has sent members to the conference.

John Gronouski. Woolsey said he was going to go back to learning the three R's — Reading, Resting and Relaxing. Not so overcome by the three R philosophy is Mrs. Woolsey who is looking on, well pleased that she will now be able to get him to do some of the household chores.

Methodists To Hear Bishop Kennedy at Cal Western

More than 4,000 Methodist laymen and ministers are expected at California Western University this Sunday to hear Bishop Gerald Kennedy and attend a San Diego District Conference on "The Mission of the Church."

Dr. Edwin E. Reeves, La Mesa, district superintendent, said delegates are expected from most of the 46 churches in the district which takes in San Diego and Imperial counties.

Bishop Kennedy, Los Angeles, episcopal leader of the Southern California-Arizona Methodist Conference, will be the closing speaker in Golden Gymnasium, at 7:30 p.m.

His message will deal with Christian stewardship — man's accountability to God in the use of his life and possessions. Throughout the fall months the denomination has been stressing stewardship commitment in study groups, adult classes, and from the pulpit. This involves, said one leader, much more than budget planning, and local church finance. "It is the way a man expresses his experience of God."

Registration for the district conference will begin at 1:30 p.m. The program will open with devotions by Captain Roland Faulk, chaplain of the 11th Naval District, at 2:30 p.m.

Dr. Will M. Hildebrand, Pasadena, executive secretary of the Methodist conference Board of Missions, will be the main afternoon speaker on the theme of the mission of the church.

Twenty discussion groups will follow his address. There also will be reports from district leaders and committees.

Monterey Heights PTA Sets Meeting

Garland James Gilliam, head of the Special Education Department for the Grossmont Union High School District, will be guest speaker at the November 14 unit meeting of the Monterey Heights PTA.

Cub Scout Pack 399, Den 4, under the direction of Mrs. E. Bellows, will present the colors. Child care will be provided at the meeting.

Provisionals who were presented at the 1963 Harvest Ball in October will officially become members of the Junior Auxiliary, according to Mrs. Edward T. Denny, Director of the Provisionals.

Mrs. Joe R. Miller, Junior Director, advises that in recognition of their service all Juniors who have given 100 hours or more volunteer hours to the Grossmont Hospital will receive pins.

A new distinction and honor has been initiated for Juniors who have served 150 hours or more. This will be a capping ceremony at which these girls will receive an attractive, pink cap.

Retirement Party Honors Ass't P.M. 'Jack' Woolsey

Aproximately 90 employees of the Lemon Grove Post Office paid honor to Elra "Jack" Woolsey at a dinner Saturday night as he retired from 33 years of Post Office service.

Woolsey had been assistant postmaster at the Lemon Grove Post Office since 1957. Previous to that he was superintendent of mails at Lemon Grove and other San Diego post offices.

The "retirement party" was a gridiron relating to his youth, some of which might have been true.

Postal officials who attended the affair at El Morocco included E. L. Mayfield, director of facilities division, Post Office Dept., San Francisco; Bruce De Marce, Area Postal Services Officer; Ralph Colonell, San Diego Postmaster; Ed Wright, National City Postmaster; and J.R. LePage, State President Calif. Assn. of Letter Carriers.

Mayfield presented Woolsey with a plaque for his untiring service. Local associates gave Woolsey an electric razor which was presented by L.G. Postmaster Frenchy Faucher.

Master of ceremonies was Max Goodwin, local newspaper publisher.

Jack Masterson, who has called for Spangles and Spurs for five years, will help teach teenagers between 12 and 18 years old the fundamentals of square dancing.

Interested persons may register during the first three weeks; the class will continue 26 weeks. Experienced teen dancers are invited to dance with the Spring Valley club on Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Goodland Acres community center. Dances are chaperoned by parents.

Party To Honor Retired Employee

After 19 years of service as a cafeteria worker in the Lemon Grove School District, Mrs. Bessie S. Taylor retired November 1.

She has been a Lemon Grove resident 28 years, residing with her husband, Roy, at 7645 Lemon' ave. where their son, Delmas "Lefty" Taylor of Lemon Grove, and daughter Mrs. Maedean Brock of Albuquerque, New Mexico, grew up.

During her 19 years with the L.G. District, Mrs. Taylor has worked in every school. She will be honored by her fellow employees at a surprise party this afternoon at Vista La Mesa school.

Mrs. Katherine Cavalier of Spring Valley is teaching knitting every Wednesday from 10 to 12 a.m. in the Lemon Grove Youth Center at 3146 School ln.

Both classes are free and are open to the public, according to Mrs. Marjorie Lee, Southeast Center director. The Goodland Acres community center is located at 8843 Troy st., S.V.

For further information call the Southeast Center at 262-0410.

LUMBER FIRM SIGN MUST GO -- BUT ONLY A LITTLE

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Star Lumber Company sign in Spring Valley will not have to give way to progress after all — not any more than five feet anyway.

The County Planning Commission overruled its staff and gave permission to move the sign back five feet and it may remain for four years.

Richard Chidester, spokesman for A-1 Advertising Sign, Inc.,

School Built House To Be Moved to LG

Grossmont high school's carpentry class has received the go-ahead for its 1963-64 project with the sale of the 1962-63 house to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanson of Grossmont.

The house soon will be moved from the Grossmont High School campus to 7406 Roosevelt ave., Lemon Grove.

The project, under direction of vocational carpentry instructor Lewis Orr, is financed by Associated Student Body funds which have been tied up in the investment. Sale of the house releases ASB funds for the year's activities and also clears the site, on which the 1,247 square foot house now stands, to permit construction of another house.

The three bedroom, two bath home has a natural finished redwood exterior and oak floors, except for vinyl in baths and kitchen. Design features include natural beam ceiling, sliding glass windows, and built-ins. A board of experts from the community has assisted in an advisory capacity with the house.

Barbara Hanson, one of the purchasers of the house, is a Grossmont graduate, class of 1955. She now teaches for the La Mesa-Spring Valley District at Rolando School.

Junior Achievers Ask Stock Aid

A call for help for funds for a Junior Achievement program came this week from John Lientert, sales promotion manager of J. A. GELCA Valley Teens.

GELCA Junior Achievers, about 30 boys and girls, 15 to 19 years of age, at Monte Vista El Cajon, Grossmont and El Capitan high schools, has approximately half of the $150 needed to start business rolling.

Members intend to produce a felt pennant to attach to car antennas so the cars can be identified in a crowded parking area, such as at football games. The pennants will sell for around 50 cents.

In the Junior Achievement program, youngsters set up small companies which are run by the youngsters under the sponsorship of local firms or clubs. Each company raises its own capital by selling stock at 50 cents a share, and produces its own product. The duration of the firm is less than a school year.

Kiwanis clubs in El Cajon and Lakeside sponsor the project.

Cossack Dancers To Appear at SDS

The thrilling songs and spectacular dances of the Don Cossack chorus and dancers will be performed at San Diego State, Monday, November 18.

The well-travelled chorus group will appear at 8 p.m. in the Peterson Gymnasium under the sponsorship of the associated students of San Diego State.

General public tickets are $1.50. San Diego State students with student activity cards will be admitted without charge. Servicemen and other students' tickets are priced at 75 cents.

The Don Cossack Chorus was organized in the capital of Czechoslovakia, Prague, in 1933. Since its inception, it has been headed by Nicholas Kostukoff who is their chorus leader and administrator.

In 20 years of singing, the Cossacks, now American citizens, have given more than 3,200 performances in the United States. The season of 1963-64 marks the 24th anniversary of their transcontinental concerts. As the New York Times states, they "still stand among the best choral groups to be heard in our concert halls."

asked that permission for moving the sign be granted. He told the commission that Camp Rd. was going to be widened 10 feet, which would place the directional sign for the lumber company three feet within the roadway.

Chidester said the sign was very important for direction of customers to the company on Bancroft. He said that a four year lease remained of the original ten years with the property owner at 9009 Campo rd.

Commissioner Gil Ray made the motion to approve the sign permit, noting that he lived in the area and was familiar with the sign. He said that when the new freeway was built and traffic taken off of Campo rd., there would be no further need for the sign.

Civil Defense Heads To Meet

County department heads have been invited to attend the first annual conference on civil defense and disaster scheduled for 9 a.m., November 20, said Robert C. Cozens, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

The meeting will be held at the County's Civil Defense Center at Gillespie Field, he said.

"The Board of Supervisors has a lasting concern that the county government must be able to respond to the demands of a natural or war-caused disaster," Cozens said. "In an emergency the citizens of the county would depend on the knowledge, ability and leadership of the heads of the county's departments and there is an ever present need for being prepared."

The board chairman said that the conference will be focused on the interests and responsibilities of the departments and will close before noon.

The program is being prepared under the guidance of William B. Marty, county administrative officer for civil defense.

General Dynamics Awarded $31 Million for Cargo Jet

SAN DIEGO — General Dynamics/Convair was awarded a $31 million follow-on subcontract Nov. 8 to manufacture 127 empennages or tail sections for the U. S. Air Force C-141 Star Lifter.

The award was made by Lockheed-Georgia Company, contractor for the turboprop jet cargo-troop carrier now in production at Marietta, Ga. The C-141 systems program office of the Air Force Systems Division, Air Force Systems Command, is directing development and procurement of the C-141 to modernize the Military Air Transport Service's airlift.

Under the initial subcontract awarded Oct. 13, 1961, Convair designed the huge tail and manufactured five production units as well as fatigue and static test articles.

All empennages ordered under the initial subcontract have been delivered to Lockheed-Georgia, a division of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, on or ahead of schedule.

The follow-on program announced today increased the Convair total C-141 subcontract work to more than $40 million, and extends deliveries through June of 1966.

Mated to the fuselage, the "T" shaped tail towers 39.3 feet off the ground. Ladders are built into the fore and aft sections of the vertical stabilizer, enabling mechanics to service systems on the horizontal stabilizer which forms the crossbar at the top of the "T".

The "T" tail design and the uniquely faired up-swing fuselage aftbody of the C-141 contribute to high aerodynamic efficiency in flight and ease of loading and unloading on the ground.

The horizontal stabilizer has a 50-foot span, comparable to the wing span of a World War II fighter plane. With the exception of the leading edge and the high-strength steel pivot fittings that lock the horizontal stabilizer to the vertical, the empennage structure is entirely aluminum.

First flight of the C-141, which will attain speeds up to 550 miles an hour, is scheduled this December.

The youths also hold the God and Country Award. Scout officials say that there are only 717 Scouts in the nation with the combination Eagle and God and Country medals. Three of them have been awarded to youths of the Lemon Grove Methodist church. The third award holder is Dennis McCullum, who received the award last year.

Only one per cent of youths becoming Scouts achieve the Eagle Scout award, officials added.

Amigo Concludes SV Visit With E. Martelli Family

Luisa Gordoba, 16, returned home Monday with 28 other students from Costa Rica and Peru who were the guests of Grossmont high school the last two weeks.

Luisa, whose major interest in school is mathematics, stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Martelli and their daughter, Susan, who is a junior at Grossmont. They reside at 4275 Avenida Gregory, Spring Valley.

With Susan, Luisa attended classes at Grossmont high and participated in different activities set up by the school and the San Diego Union-Tribune, co-sponsors of Operation Amigo.

Luisa came to San Diego from her home in Santa Domingo, a suburb of Heredia, Heredia, which is close to San Jose. At home, Luisa attends a girls' parochial school where she concentrates on math, and plans to be a teacher after graduation from the University of Costa Rica.

She is the second oldest in a family of eight sisters and three brothers; her father is an agricultural engineer with offices in the National Bank of Costa Rica.

Returning home almost in time for school summer vacation, which lasts from November to March, Luisa said she will spend her time at the beach, horseback riding, helping her mother with the housework, and doing about the same thing people do in the U.S.

Many of the Amigos, including Luisa, have enjoyed their visit so much that they have said they want to return.

One girl, Hilda Rosa Orgue das, saw her American father doing dishes. If all American men are like that, she said she would like to come to find a husband. But for Luisa? "I want my Carlos," was her reply.

Lake Elsinore To Be Refilled

Governor Edmund G. Brown recently announced approval of a $750,000 Small Craft Harbors Commission loan which by next April is expected to return water sports to Lake Elsinore, which is near Los Angeles.

The loan, approved by the commission today, goes to the Division of Beaches and Parks which will use approximately $250,000 of it for installation of delivery facilities and the remainder for the purchase of water to fill it up again.

The lake became part of the state park system in 1957. Over the last few decades, the water level of the lake has fluctuated intermittently due to changing water use patterns along the San Jacinto River which feeds it.

In 1951, the lake went dry. Only twice since 1951 has it had an appreciable amount of water in it.

Lincoln Acres Wins S.V. Sewer District Hookup

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — A long battle to acquire sewers in Lincoln Acres was ended Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors with the approval of a 165-acre annexation to the Spring Valley Sanitation District.

The supervisors approved the annexation after learning the 31 people representing less than five per cent of the registered voters of the area proposed for annexation had protested.

The area contains 656 registered voters and two more signatures would have required that the matter be set for an election.

A number of the people excluded from the proposed annexation sought to be included so that they could protest and bring about an election. All said they wanted sewers, but wanted them through annexation to the City of National City.

The area has had two elections for annexation to National City. Both failed.

Some of the proponents for annexation to National City have been annexing to that city on a piecemeal basis, lot by lot.

Warren A. Barney, director of special district services, said that the entire area would undoubtedly be served through the Spring Valley trunk line, whether it is a part of National City or not.

The DIMMER VIEW

In interpreting a word consideration should be given to the context in which the word is used.

"COURTS HAVE TREATED THE TERM "TEMPORARY" AS BEING USED IN DISTINCTION FROM THE TERM "PERMANENT." Thus, the authority granted by Section 16551 is to allow a church or religious organization to use school property as a temporary rather than permanent meeting place for its services. We do not believe that it is possible to specify a definite period of time beyond which the use of school facilities for religious services would be deemed a permanent use. That period of time would vary with varying factual situations . . ."

Very truly yours,
A. C. Morrison
Legislative Counsel

And that, Dear Readers, is a governmental Gobbledegook opinion on how Sacramento feels about "temporary" use of school buildings for church services.

Writing Can Cost You Money!

We suppose there are more budding writers in the San Diego area than any other area in the U.S.

Many people come here to retire, find time on their hands, and the typewriter becomes an outlet for a still-active mind. Some of the stuff is pretty good; a lot of it is so bad as to be nauseating, but the producers of this material have one thing in common - to see it in print.

After their "deathless prose" is turned down locally, writers frequently turn to the out-of-town agents. These agents are easy to find. They advertise in those few San Diego newspapers that will accept their ads. Not all newspapers do. A squawk was recently voiced by the S.D. Better Business Bureau regarding a type of alleged quackery by which writers may be separated from their cash.

Vantage Press, Inc., of New York City advertise locally and state they are "representatives of a well-known book publisher soon to be in San Diego," according to the BBB.

The announcement does not reveal that the firm is one of the so-called "vanity press" - that would be a publisher requiring the author to pay somewhat substantial sums for the privilege of seeing his labors in print.

Vantage Press, BBB reports, was one subject of a Federal Trade Commission order prohibiting it from misleading authors into believing that its "cooperative" book publishing plan was more than a scheme whereby the author footed the publishing bill and the publisher reaped the publishing profits.

This warning is offered at this time because, we are told, similar ads are being submitted to San Diego newspapers.

"Poverty is a state of mind, induced by a neighbor's new car."

LG Quarterback Gives Utahans 14-7 Victory

PROVO, UTAH (Special) — Doug Wardell, a six-foot, 180-pound junior quarterback from Lemon Grove, is currently the number two signal caller for the Brigham Young University Cougars football team.

Doug, who doubles as a southpaw pitcher in baseball for the BYU, saw limited action as a sophomore but had a great day in the last game of the 1962 season.

He was called upon to fill in for the injured BYU All-American, Eldon Fortie. Under Doug's direction the Cougars upset the Wyoming Cowboys 14-7 and Wardell accounted for over 100 of the Utahans total yardage.

In six games this season Doug has seen limited action, but has carried the ball 33 times and thrown 26 passes and completed seven for a total of 100 yards.

ONE POINT VICTORY — Mount Miguel high school's left halfback Jim Nicodemus (42) runs eight yards for Miguel's second touchdown with El Cajon's Dave Nutta (13), quarterback, in close pursuit. The Matadors won the game 14-13, and will play Helix this Friday night. See story on page 1.

SPORTS AND RECREATION

Kemp, Rote Rematch Seen In Charger-Buffalo Game

BUFFALO, N.Y. — With two impressive road game victories in their cache, the San Diego Chargers attempt to engineer a sweep of their annual Eastern swing when they challenge the Buffalo Bills this Sunday in War Memorial Stadium. Kick-off time is 11:05 a.m. PST.

ABC Television will bring the action back to the San Diego area (Channels 6 and 7), while the Chargers' Radio Network (KFMB in Greater San Diego) will air the activities through the voices of Lyle Bond and Lute Mason.

The game will provide an interesting rematch between Tobin Rote, leading passer in the AFL, of the Chargers and former Charger Jack Kemp of the Bills. In their only previous quarterbacking duel, Rote and the Chargers won, 17-13, with the 13-year veteran completing 18 of 29 passes for 260 yards as compared to Kemp's 17 of 33 for 220 yards. Leading rusher in the first meeting was the league's second-leading ground gainer, San Diego halfback Paul Lowe with 96 yards in 10 carries.

A narrow 4-3 advantage in the four-year series is maintained by the Chargers, but it is significant to note that each Charger decision has been of the slim variety (Chargers 19, Bills 10; Chargers 19, Bills 11; and Chargers 28, Bills 10, in addition to the 17-13 nod), while the Bills have romped, 32-3, 35-10, and 40-20.

Williams' Play Opens at Globe

Tennessee Williams' prize-winning drama, "The Night of the Iguana," opened at the Old Globe Theater Tuesday for a four-week run every night except Monday.

"The Night of the Iguana" received one of the most highly regarded prizes for theatre on Broadway.

New York drama critics named the drama as the best American play of the 1962 season.

The play being directed by Craig Noel is located on the Baja coast of Mexico in 1940. Action takes place on the veranda of a shabby hotel amidst jungle foliage.

Four diverse characters battle the desperate loneliness which threatens to engulf them. A discredited American cleric guiding a tour of women through Mexico seeks the seclusion and peace of the tropical locale. The hotel owner is looking for a romance to share her love.

An impoverished spinster, sketching guests to pay her bills, requires peace in her lonely wandering. Her grandfather, an elderly poet, strives to complete a final poem.

Auto Race Track Set for Lakeside

Detailed plans for an international raceway at Lakeside have been completed and work has already started on the new facility, according to Ray Hawthorth, executive director of the track.

John Hugenholtz of Holland and Michael Parker of Portland, who are said to be world leaders in the field of race course design, are architects of the development.

The tract site is in a valley along State Highway 67, six miles outside Lakeside on a triangular area of land. Four different tracks will be in operation, one within the other, ranging from a quarter mile dirt track to a mile and an eighth asphalt oval, all of which will be surrounded by a nearly-three-mile-long drag track.

Grandstands and adequate parking are being provided on two sides of the track.

NROTC Qualifying Examination Set

High school seniors and graduates have until November 22 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps. Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination December 14 as the first step toward an appointment as midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at one of the 52 civilian colleges which has an NROTC unit.

All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives a retainer of $50 per month for not more than four years. During the summers the student goes on training cruises to many parts of the world.

After completing a four year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a career officer in the Naval Service. He receives the same promotional opportunities, duty assignments and benefits as Naval Academy graduates.

High school seniors and graduates who will be at least 17 but not 21 years of age on 30 June 1964 may apply for the Navy College Aptitude Test.

WHAT'S DOING

Streeter King, your telephone manager in Lemon Grove.

Maintaining phone lines is a never ending job! To keep phone lines ready for your calls, men in Telephone Patrol planes fly along hundreds of miles of phone cable nearly every day. They're on the lookout for construction work or other hazards that might damage underground or overhead lines. They warn anyone on the ground working near cables by dropping notes or calling to them over the plane's loudspeaker system.

You, too, can help protect your service (and your neighbors') by watching out for buried cable if you have occasion to use digging equipment on your property. If you're having a contractor handle the job, it's a good idea to remind him, too.

If you have any questions about the location of a buried cable, just give us a call.

While it didn't happen here, a mystery of phones ringing without callers recently was unraveled. Seems that a bull loved to scratch his back on the guy wire of a telephone pole in his pasture. Each time, the friction caused all the telephones on the rural line to ring.

Everyone was happy when telephone men moved the pole to the other side of the fence. Everyone, that is, except the bull.

Planning a program for your group or club? We at your telephone business office will be glad to supply free films and arrange interesting lectures and demonstrations.

Here's a problem that calls for some backyard arithmetic. Let's say Mrs. Smith's telephone is in her living room—24 feet from the kitchen. She gets at least three phone calls a day when she's in the kitchen. This means that she walks 48 feet, back and forth, to answer the phone each time. That's 144 feet of walking a day, 52,560 feet a year. Now if Mrs. Smith's average step is 24 inches in length, how many extra steps does she make a year?

Why not call your Service Representative on 466-3201 and arrange for that wallphone? It's one addition that lets you subtract steps.

Southern California's economic activity recorded the second highest month-to-month advance of the year to date as it moved to another new high during October, Harold Holsonback, manager of Security First National Bank's College Grove Branch, reported recently.

Murder of Billy McGinnis To Be Probed Here Tonight

Twenty-nine students at Mount Miguel high know the answer to a closely guarded secret — "Who killed Billy McGinnis?"

Working under student directors Sandy Church and Pat Mayer and assisted by stage manager Mike Sory, cast members of "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners" have been preparing for performances today, November 14 at 7:30 p.m., and November 16 at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Twelve parents find themselves drawn into a web of suspicion as teens turn the auditorium of Carson Corners high school into a court probing the circumstances of their friend's death.

Although Mr. Koualskey is accused of the crime, more and more people find themselves involved with the presentation of new evidence, including Mr. McGinnis. Did Mr. Koualskey really steal the Community Chest funds or did Miss Frank just forget? How did Elizabeth Wright receive those mysterious splinters and why didn't Miss Frank report that loose fire railing? What caused Dr. Caldwell to arrive a half hour late at the scene of the accident?

"It's full of surprises and drama," said Rich Sabo. "It seems as though we are all a little crazy."

For a thrill-filled evening, all cast members suggest that individuals attend one of the performances to find out who killed Billy McGinnis. Student tickets for the senior class play are 50 cents with an ASB card, 75 cents without; adult tickets are a dollar.

Supervisor David W. Bird said the new law would increase the work of the Board of Equalization comprised of the Board of Supervisor members. The new law will give taxpayers notification in time to attend Equalization hearings and give them a chance to be heard.

T. M. Heggland, chief administrative officer, told the supervisors that the county assessor had recently simplified the task for taxpayers by holding informal meetings in the various areas of the county. This way taxpayers can attend and find out what their new assessments will be or go to the Civic Center office of the assessor for the information.

The Ladies of Spring Valley Friends Community Church are sponsoring a smorgasbord dinner at the church this Friday at 6 p.m.

Following dinner, the Rev. David Le Shana, pastor of Long Beach Friends Church, and his wife will show pictures taken on their trip to the International Youth for Christ Rally in Madras, India.

Born and raised near Lucknow, India of missionary parents, the Rev. Le Shana attended school in the Himalayas before coming to the United States to study at Taylor University in Upland, Indiana.

The Rev. Lewis Swander, pastor of the local church, will introduce Rev. Le Shana and his wife. The dinner is open to the public.

Helix High School Highlander Choir members will present two concerts in Ensenada, Mexico, November 16.

The 65 students will travel by Greyhound bus under sponsorship of the Helix Choir Parents Club with Robert Rue, director, and David Ballesteros and Alfonso Hernandez, Spanish instructors, as faculty representatives.

The presentation is part of a cultural exchange program with the Mexican school, and this year the occasion is observance of the founding of the campus of the Universidad de Mexico in Ensenada.

The Helix choir will sing a concert section. Spanish translations of all texts will
